REPORT STATE TAX COMMISSION, 1914,

INCREASE IN PUBLIC EXPENDITURES

No power has constituted the members of the tax commission of guardians of the public in respect to expenditures for the support of government, and they have no disposition to assume that role. Nevertheless, "economy being a most essential virtue in all states," and it being "the duty of legislators and magistrates * * * to countenance and inculcate the principles of * * * economy," all as set forth in the constitution of this state, the commissioners believe themselves to be amply justified in urging, as they have so often urged before, the importance of this subject upon the voters of the state. The public revenue, state and municipal, is the voters' business and the yare responsible, directly or indirectly, for every extravagance affecting it from the inception to the termination of the fund.

Every compulsory contribution levied by public authority upon people or property in is the broad sense of the term a tax, nor is it made less obnoxious or burdensome if called a fee or a fine. In the figures that follow, therefore, all fees, fines, and other exactions, if any, are included with the taxes upon polls and estates. To illustrate the comparative importance of the two classes, it may be said that the taxes upon polls and estates represent about 95 per cent. and all other income about 5 per cent. of the total revenue of the state, and of the counties, cities, towns, districts and precincts therein.

Taxes as defined above have increased by leaps and bounds in recent years. In 1903 the sum of all the taxes assessed by and within the state of New Hampshire was \$5,373,420.22; in 1913 it was \$8,765,039.07, an increase of \$3,391,618.85, or 63 per cent., in ten years. But these figures do not adequately represent the velocity the upward movement has now attained. To show that it is necessary to divide the ten-year period: The levy in 1908 was \$924,388.79, or 17 per cent, greater than in 1903, while that in 1913 was \$2,467,230.06, or 39 per cent. greater than in 1908. By so much did the advance in the last half of said period exceed that in the first half. These figures will be the more alarming if it is remembered that while taxes already sufficiently heavy were advancing 63 per cent., the population of the state increased only about $4\frac{1}{2}$ per cent., and while the one was advancing 39 per cent., the other increased only about $2\frac{1}{4}$ per cent.

It is instructive to study the subject from another angle. In the ten years from 1904 to 1914, both inclusive, the annual increase in all taxes defined and limited as above was as follows:

1904.....	$ 34,459.91
1905.....	286,590.14
1906.....	115,468.39
1907.....	411,257.46
1908.....	76,612.89
1909.....	539,995.97
1910.....	787,565.31
1911.....	215,848.50
1912.....	296,216.85
1913.....	627,603.43

The average increase for the whole period was $336,561.85. The upward trend is more plainly shown, however, by dividing, as before, the ten-year period in the middle and considering the halves separately. For the first five years the average annual increase was $184,877.76; for the last five years it was $493,446.01. It is surely pertinent to consider how long the little state of New Hampshire, almost stationary in wealth, can sustain a tax already burdensome and increasing at the rate of practically half a million dollars a year without crippling her industries and impoverishing her people. Plainly it is a condition not calculated to attract capital from without the state or to encourage business within the same.

From the per capita standpoint the situation is not less disturbing. In 1903 there were assessed $12.88 in taxes for each man, woman and child in the state. Five years later there were assessed $14.75 for each individual, and in five years more $20.09. If in 1913 taxes had been equally distributed among all the people it would have meant a burden of $100 for each family of five members. Though in reality there was little such equality in the assessment there was much in the payment. The fact is that those who occupy, use or consume property, no matter who owns it, are those who in the last analysis pay most, if not all, of the taxes thereon. If the wage earner or the man of limited means understood he was in reality paying something like $100 a year in state and municipal and half as much more in federal taxes for the government of himself, his wife and three children, his influence and his vote would more frequently make for economy in appropriations and expenditures than heretofore.

No statistics for the year 1914 appear in the above paragraphs for the reason that they are not yet at hand except in part.

SCHOOL REPORT

To the Citizens of the School District:

As a result of the increasing number of children in District No. 7 it seemed advisable to your Board to once more open a school there. This was accordingly done, a number of needed repairs having been made on the school house. Considerable work has been done on the interior of the Webster building, walls and ceilings having been tinted and new seats placed in one of the rooms.

The report of the Superintendent should receive your thoughtful consideration, as should the statistical matter submitted.

A study of the report of the State Superintendent of Public Instruction shows that in most respects Hudson holds a high rank in educational matters among the towns of the state. He includes Hudson in a select list of a few towns "which have been doing well financially by their schools, with excellent results."

The following estimates are submitted:

Money for high school tuition,	$2,000.00
Money for text books and supplies,	250.00
Money for flags and appurtenances,	10.00

Respectfully submitted,

HENRY O. SMITH,
LETTIE V. LESLIE,
HENRY C. BROWN.

School Board of Hudson.

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

To the School Board and Citizens of Hudson:

I have the honor to present my third report as Superintendent of Schools and request that the statistical tables at least be thoughtfully perused, as the progress of your schools can be best ascertained from their study.

MEMBERSHIP

The total membership for the year 1914 was 236, a decrease of four, but the average membership and attendance increased a little. The per cent of attendance remained the same (92 per cent), but this should certainly be taken as improvement since the severity of the winter of 1914 exceeded anything in my experience. We have reduced the number of tardy marks from 482 to 330. Nothing in this report is more pleasing to the Superintendent than this fact. Number Nine school still reports more than its share of such tardy marks.

GRADUATES

Eleven pupils graduated last June, 3 from the Center School, 7 from the Webster School and 1 from Number One School. Nine of these, or 82 per cent., entered high school, all who tried passing the Nashua entrance examinations.

TEACHERS

Hudson Center suffered a distinct loss when Miss McLellan resigned to accept a more lucrative position. Mrs. Charlotte Buttrick was transferred to this school and Miss Hazel Bradley was elected to the primary position at the Webster School, but resigned at the end of one week to accept a position in Nashua. Miss Elizabeth Cottle, a graduate of Portsmouth Training School, was then secured and is doing excellent work. I consider our corps of teachers very strong and worthy of parental support. The spirit in all schools is good, especial improvement being noticed in the Webster School.

Your attention should again be brought to the good work of the Boy Scouts. The pathway at the Webster School was graded and several trees, including some Walnut trees, donated by the Scout Masters, were set out at the Center and Webster Schools. Civic pride of this sort should be encouraged. No school in this supervisory union displays better spirit than does the Center School. Under Mrs. Buttrick the pupils have started a school library which is distinctly valuable.

At Number One School Miss Merrill was expected to teach but the severe illness of her mother necessitated her leave of absence. Miss Jennie Belle Harwood, who taught the spring term was re-engaged, but not proving satisfactory to the parents of the district, was replaced by Mr. George Seavey at the close of the term. We were fortunate to secure the services of this young man, who is worthy of a larger position. Miss Laura Joy at Number Nine School has the hardest teaching proposition in the town, having 23 Pupils of all grades and several nationalities. Her work is creditable and she is becoming more valuable every term.

Conditions were such that it was deemed advisable to open Number Seven School in the fall, 13 pupils being enrolled. Miss Eva Winn, a graduate of Nashua High School, was engaged to teach the school. She was without training but quickly gained experience.

MUSIC

At the opening of the fall term Miss Ella G. Russell, a graduate of Lowell Normal School, with special training in music, was engaged to teach singing. Her report occurs elsewhere. New books were supplied for her working tools, but an exchange of many very old and badly worn books minimized the cost. Miss Russell has made weekly visits to the Center and Webster Schools, but inclement weather and poor transportation facilities have often interrupted her schedule in the outside schools. Both Miss Russell and the Superintendent would welcome constructive criticism at any time.

TRUANT OFFICER

A very careful enumeration of the school children was made by your Truant Officer, who has done excellent work in his position. There are very few parents who do not send their children regularly, but we still feel that there are individual instances where there is a lack of co-operation. The Superintendent urges the formation of Parent-Teachers' Associations to bring parents and the schools into more intimate relations. A spirit of constructive criticism is always helpful.

A WORD AS TO FINANCES

I hope that the time will soon come when our school year can be increased. We are doing the work of 36 weeks in 34. No other study should be attempted until we have an increased school year. Below are a few figures relative to cost of maintenance:

Average cost per pupil of average attendance, 1914, $29.20

Average cost per pupil of average attendance for teaching,	15.04
Average cost per pupil of average attendance, for books supplies and apparatus,	1.54

CONCLUSION

In conclusion, remember that the teachers are human, their pupils are human and treated as such. We are dealing with expanding humanity, never perfect, therefore our results will never be perfect. We are all doing our best. Our Superintendent has been ably supported by the School Board, and has been encouraged in his work by helpful words and advice from thoughtful citizens.

Respectfully submitted,

HOWARD L. WINSLOW.

MUSIC REPORT

The music in the schools this year should be of great interest to those who care to look into the subject.

The plan of teaching is one which is very generally used and has been proved exceptionally strong in developing sight singing.

It would be very satisfying to the teachers and pupils if the parents would visit the schools and see with what growing confidence the children master a subject which has been practically systematized.

The Supervisor would be very glad to meet and talk with any one at all interested in the school music, on Tuesdays at the Webster School in the morning and at the Center School in the afternoon, or by special appointment.

ELLA G. RUSSELL.

During the year just closed, since February 15, 1914, when the twenty-first annual report of the Trustees was published with the Town Report, there have been added 316 books, which, with the 5554 at that time in the Library, make the present number of volumns 5870.

The 316 new books added are classified as follows:

Biography,	7
Drama and Poetry,	3
Fiction,	225
Juvenile Fiction,	32
Miscellaneous Fiction,	7

	316

Dr. Alfred K. Hills and his venerable and genial relative, Mrs. Mary Creutzborg, have continued to furnish the library with a constant and generous supply of new books, and have given 297 of the 316. The other contributors were: Mrs. P. H. Cote, Town of Amherst, Town of Hudson, State of New Hampshire, U. S. Government.

The numerous patrons of the Library, including the reading citizens of Hudson, greatly appreciate this constant, continued generosity and good will of these public-spirited citizens so liberally bestowed.

Citizens of Hudson and other friends of the Library have continued to furnish gratuitously a large supply of the best magazines and other periodicals of which the following is a partial list:

National Geographic Magazine, Literary Digest, Outlook, Hoard's Dairyman, Science, Atlantic Monthly, Saturday Evening Post, Ladies' Home Journal, Country Gentleman, and Popular Mechanics, all by Dr. Alfred K. Hills.

Delineator, Everybody's and McClure's, by Walter H. Marsh.

Lippincott's, by Mrs. Anabel C. Andrews.

World's Work, by Kimball Webster.

American Magazine, by Miss Mittie Baker.

Munsey's and Ladies' World, by Mrs. A. F. Sinclair.

The Nashua Daily Telegraph is also received from the publishers.

Other miscellaneous copies of magazines and papers have also been received.

They are very generally read and enjoyed by a large number of patrons of the Library and add much to its interest and usefulness.

The monthly average of the books loaned, as appears by the report of the librarian, has been 535.16, with a total number for the year of 6,422, an increase from the number of the year preceding of 344.

The annual record of cards issued and books loaned since the Library was opened, or twenty years and eight months, is as follows:
